Girls' Summer Camp at Burlington.

At Burlington this summer older girls and young women of Vermont are to have a camp, known as the Oak Ledge camp, which will be under the auspices of the Patriotic league. The property where the camp will be located is available Webb, and it is to be used exclusively for a girls' camp and war garden. There is a fine large house there, spacious grounds and a beach. Preference will be given to employed young many the state of t given to employed young women business women, teachers and high school students; to any who are looking for a wholesome good time and who cannot afford to go to an expensive camp. Bur-lington girls are to have gardens at Oak Ledge and there will be a large garden for the camp table, where any girl so inclined may gain garden experience and also earn, when necessary, part of her board. Plenty of simple, wholesome food will be served and outdoor sports will be popular.

Sept. 15. The rates are $5 per week, $1 village on of which must accompany the applicatio and will be deducted from the first week's board. Those planning to go for any length of time are expected to carry certain articles, like bedding, etc., but a few can be accommodated without bringing their own bedding by paying $1 a week extra.
